ALLEN BINSTOCK IS NAMED DEPUTY REGIONAL ATTORNEY IN NLRB'S CLEVELAND, OH REGIONAL OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board's General Counsel Ronald Meisburg today announced the appointment of Allen Binstock as Deputy Regional Attorney in the Agency's Regional Office in Cleveland, OH (Region 8). A career NLRB attorney, Mr. Binstock had been serving as a Supervisory Attorney in that office.

In his new position, Mr. Binstock will assist Regional Director Fred Calatrello in the enforcement and the administration of the National Labor Relations Act in northern Ohio.

In enforcing the National Labor Relations Act, the NLRB conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates, prosecutes and remedies unfair labor practices committed by employers and unions.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg stated:

Allen Binstock is a talented and conscientious public servant who brings exceptional skills and experience to his new position. His promotion helps ensure that the high quality work of the Cleveland Regional Office will continue.

Mr. Binstock began his career with the NLRB in 1979 as a Field Attorney in the Cleveland Office. In 2005, Mr. Binstock received a promotion to the position of Supervisory Attorney.

Mr. Binstock received his undergraduate degree in 1969 from Case Western Reserve University where he earned an A.B. degree in history and received Phi Beta Kappa honors. In 1971, he received a Masters degree in history from the University of Wisconsin. He earned a J.D. degree from the University of Connecticut Law School in 1979.
